

Prayer Diary for October 2020

- Thu 1st That older people may be valued for their knowledge and wisdom.
- Fri 2nd For Eunice Forsyth as she embarks on her training for ministry
- Sat 3rd In remembrance of Archdeacon Ian Morgan, whose year's mind is today.
- Sun 4th On St Francis Day, for vets, animal welfare charities and shelters.
- Mon 5th For our Churchwardens and lay elders as they support our worship.
- Tue 6th For all who support those with mental health issues.
- Wed 7th For all PCC members and the decisions they will make for the future of our ministry.
- Thu 8th For our Members of Parliament and local councillors.
- Fri 9th For Christopher and choir members as they return to enhance our worship.
- Sat 10th For an end to knife crime and violence in our town.
- Sun 11th For our Bishops Martin and Michael and the senior clergy of the diocese.
- Mon 12th For the housebound and the lonely and that visiting restrictions may be eased.
- Tue 13th For emergency services personnel, that they may be kept safe as they go about their duties.
- Wed 14th For the gardening team and their work in the churchyard through the summer.
- Thu 15th For all who find family life difficult.
- Fri 16th For the Samaritans and the continuation of the good work they do.
- Sat 17th For our team of bell ringers returning to call us to worship.
- Sun 18th For all physicians on St Lukes Day.
- Mon 19th That all may be inspired to "do their bit" to alleviate the effects of climate change.
- Tue 20th For residents and carers in care homes and sheltered housing.
- Wed 21st For Sue Rudland and the licensees in Tower House.
- Thu 22nd For all who work in retail in the Town Centre.
- Fri 23rd For people of other faiths and harmony between them.
- Sat 24th On United Nations Day, that all nations may co-operate to ensure peace, prosperity and a secure future for everyone.
- Sun 25th As British Summer Time ends, for all who fear the onset of colder weather and the dark days.
- Mon 26th For the clergy and congregations in our link diocese of Kagera.

- Tue 27th For Families in Need and those who support the work of foodbanks.
- Wed 28th For preparations being made for the winter night shelter in its new location.
- Thu 29th For hospital chaplains of all faiths, with thanks for the spiritual support they give to patients.
- Fri 30th For police officers and civilians who work at the custody suite at Martlesham.
- Sat 31st As we remember loved ones - family and friends - on All Souls Day.